From the
Chieftan and PRAEFECTUS

Greetings everyone, we hope that you are enjoying the changing of the leaves that autumn brings to us all. Since we last spoke, a variety of wonderful things have happened for our Barony and our noble populous. Congratulations to Lady Jobita for becoming the Premier Unser Hafen Champion of the Horse. Jobita was the first equestrian guard of our Barony, and now she is its Premier Champion. Huzzah! Congratulations are also in order for Lord Gunther who is one of the newest companions of the Stag' s Heart of the Outlands. Everyone also needs to praise the Barony's newest armigers: Lady Jobita (she had a good month) and Lord Tokitata (can you believe it!). In other news, our good friends from Windkeep, Lord Mavrikki and Lady Kayleigh also deserve salutations and great praise for they became the first non Unser Hafeners to receive the Keepers of the Portcullis. And our very own Baron Sir Kevin, received the Golden Ring of Unser Hafen. Finally, we would also like to congratulate the winners of all the newcomers championships. Connan, who won the heavy weapons tourney, Arion, who won the fencing tourney, James, who won the archery tourney, and Melora, the winner of the Arts and Sciences competition. Her Excellency and I would also like to welcome Moyra of Bofharrach to our Baronial Guard as an Equestrian. Congratulations one and all.

In other news, we certainly hope that everyone plans to attend the Baronial A&S College. Their Royal Majesties will be in attendance, and we hope you all are there. Master Thorfinn has organized a huge variety of classes for us all, and Lady Wenhauer will grace our boards with a bounteous feast. Instructors will be teaching everything from carving to warfare. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN THE ARTS WHETHER YOU ARE A NEWCOMER OR AN OLDER, COME JOIN US!!!!

This month will be Coronation in the Barony of Dragonsspine when Their Royal Highnesses, Sir Torin and Her Excellency Mistress Elisheva, will be crowned King and Queen of the Kingdom of the Outlands. We hope our Barony is well represented at this event, and the Barony of Unser Hafen would like to congratulate their Royal Highnesses on Their victory at Crown Tourney.

Please be aware that starting November 3rd, we begin indoor fighter practices at the CSU fieldhouse. Fighters get out there and train! WAR IS COMING!!!! NOT ONLY THAT, (VICIOUS) RUMOR HAS IT THAT A PARTY OF BLOODTHIRSTY RAIDERS FROM CAERTHE WILL BE SHOWING UP AT THIS PRACTICE TO ATTACK, ERR, RATHER, HONE OUR FIGHTING SKILLS IN LARGE MELEES. So, Her Excellency and I hope our fighters, fencers, allies, and non-combatants will be there to support our fine Barony.

In the last part of October, the Barony had a state of the Barony meeting. A lot of business was addressed and it was quite successful. The Barony is quite well off right now. We have lots of newcomers and we need to keep them interested in pursuing the dream. So all you experienced SCAers get out there and meet and talk to the newcomers and all you newcomers out there, WELCOME and keep on coming! We plan on having another of these meetings sometime in the Spring of 1997. We appreciate the attendance of the people present and hope we see them and even more next spring.

Final note: Her Excellency and I would like to say hi to our friends to the east Wayland, Octavia, and Daniel in Ansteorra and the even more Easterners Conchobhar and Lughbec in Atlantia. We miss you guys and hope you are doing well.

From the Chronicler

Happy reading,

From the Knight Marshall

Well, as you probably know by now, we have moved to our winter practice site. Starting November 3rd we will hold fighter practice in the CSU Fieldhouse on Sunday from 2PM to 5PM. We will be inside until around March, however please note that the time will probably change after January 12th due to the CSU semester change. Also, please remember that when we practice inside we must clean up promptly and be out by 5PM.

Secondly, I want everyone to remember that I promised to collect opinions about the new park at the end of the outdoor season. So please come find me, write me, or call me in the next month and let me know your opinion about fighting in City Park versus Spring Creek. You DO NOT have to a fighter to count! If you've been to practice, you have a valid opinion.

Thirdly, I am seeking deputies. Both of the take-over eventually and of the just to help variety. If you are interested in learning more about the way the Barony conducts its affairs, or just want to give some effort back to our group, please let me know. You don't have to be a top stick jock to apply. All that's required is willingness to learn and a smidgen of patience. I hope to step down sometime this winter and I MUST step down before the end of the school year.

To close, I want to remind all fighters to stretch out before practice now that its cold, and to donate to the hat when you can so that the Barony can afford our snowless, indoor winter practices.

In service, I am,
Lord Caradoc ap Rhys

Greetings from the Quartermaster

We have emptied our lost and found bin. This was done in the nick of time for many gentles have been losing many possessions. As soon as I get all of these in, I will post a list of the items in question. I would also like all gentles to make a list of all the baronial property that they have in their possession. This will give me a chance to update my list for what we have and their correct locations. Thank you for your cooperation.

In the service of the barony
Lord Gunther Der Wanderer

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

On November 2, we will hold an Arts & Sciences College where classes will be available in many areas of medieval studies as well as our anachronistic endeavors. There are nearly 30 classes being prepared covering a wide range of topics and skill levels. Please plan to not just attend this event, but attend as many of the classes as you can.

Now is the time to start executing your winter A&S projects and to think about entering your accomplishments in the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition in March. Preparations at the Kingdom level are beginning now. If you need some guidance or someone to listen to your ideas, come and talk to me.

If you are new to our Barony, please let me know what A & S areas you are interested in, or what skills you already have.

In service,
Master Thorfinn GreyBeard

Greetings from the Minister of Lists

In the month of September, there was a baronial whim tourney. His Excellency had as his whim a melee tournament in which Lord Takashi was given the chivalry prize of cookies. Many people were there and it was a well fought battle.

I am working on a new filing system for the MOL box to improve efficiency.

Bofharrach's Chronicler's Report

Greetings from the land of cows,

We have all stored our harvest and are now gathering up the leaves that are falling from the trees. October has brought a slight slowing to our lives, but there has still been much to talk about!

The Heir to Bayard and the Baronial Equestrian Champion were chosen, and they are Lady Jobita and her steed Ramses. Our fair canton was well represented by Lorcan and Moyra on their steed, Windell, who also carried our Baron Titus to glory at a trot, no less! Lorcan was victorious in the Intermediate division and received a silver coin, while Moyra had the honor of sharing victory with Lady Dubheasa in the advanced division. We would like to thank Lady Rossilin for putting on such a fun event, and we look forward to more! Their Majesties, Irel and Ileana, gave some well deserved awards. Lady Jobita and Lord Toki were given Awards of Arms, and Lord Mavrikki and Lady Kayleigh were awarded Stag's Hearts. Because of the vacancy left by Lady Jobita on the guard when she became the Equestrian Champion, Moyra was invited to join the Baronial Guard. Congratulations to one and all.

The Newcomers' Revel and Tournament was great fun. We had a lot of new people attend and got to see the mettle of the newest fighters in the Barony. We also had the pleasure of being entertained by Vox Renatus, a renaissance singing group from Greeley. Lord Gunther was given the Stag's Heart by Their Excellencies, on behalf of Their Majesties. Baron Sir Kevin was inducted into the order of the Golden Ring. Lord Mavrikki and Lady Kayleigh were made Keepers of the Portcullis. The weather was very cooperative and the event was a wonderful success.

We have located a temporary indoor site for our Tuesday night gatherings, but due to scheduling problems we are unable to meet there on a consistent basis. Please be sure to check with Timon's answering machine to get the latest info. Don't forget that the Baronial A&S College is coming up November 2 in Nunn, and Coronation will take place the following weekend in Dragonsspine.

May your bulls be prolific, your cows ever fertile, and your holidays spent with good company and good cheer!

In Service to the dream,

Mogra MacColla

In Period times, Asian civilizations were making effective use of the abacus in business and government. Did you ever wonder if Europeans might have had something similar? Another question - the Chancellor of the Exchequer has been a very powerful Minister of State in England since the reign of Henry III - but just what is an exchequer? This month Master Daffyd of Emmett will talk to us about "Medieval Manual Arithmetic ". This was the Period use of jetons (counting tokens) and excheckers (counting boards) for the addition of pounds, shillings and pence or Roman numerals - all without the use of pen and paper.

We will meet at 7:30 P.M., October 30, the fifth Wednesday of the month, at the home of Amelia von Altburg -- 9901 East Evans Avenue, #28D, Denver. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call THL Amelia, 750-0180, or Master Robin Vinehall, 444-5004. If you have particular questions you would like to hear covered in this talk, you are encouraged to call Master Daffyd, 394-4352.

Unser Hafen A & S College — November 2

Please come to a day of teaching, learning, and good company at our bi-annual Arts and Sciences College. If you are a beginner, haven't yet begun, or are well on your way, there will be classes for you. Multi-level training in calligraphy and illumination will get you started and help keep you going. "Sieges Through the Ages" will add interest for students of warfare. The art of repousse', used in decorated armor, may open a new door for workers of metals. A class on embroidery will cover styles in several cultures and time periods. Period uses of herbs offers insights into medieval everyday life. Training in Celtic Dance, and heavy and light weapons techniques will also be offered, so bring your dancing shoes and your fighting equipment. A discussion on "A & S Creativity versus Authenticity" will be facilitated, and a class in "A & S Judging" aimed toward a competition entrant will add variety and challenge. Construction of a silver Saxon ring, a class on war horses, wood carving, pewter casting, and how to prepare for your first bardic. These are just examples of the offering - nearly 30 classes are being readied for this event. A complete class schedule and any registration costs/requirements will be available in mid-October from the Class Coordinator.

The site is the Nunn Community Center in Nunn, Colorado. Nunn is located directly east of Fort Collins; see the map on page 8. The site opens at 9AM with classes beginning at 11AM. Site fee is $3 for adults, half for 7-14, and free under 7. A donation lunch of soups and breads will be available. The feast will be presented by Lady Wenhauer von Eirich.
